Retired Staff Gather in Ferney

As those present in the Ferney-Voltaire brasserie on Monday 26 April will agree, the atmosphere was upbeat. Retired internationals from Gex, Petit Saconnex, St. Genis and various places in between had responded enthusiastically to the AFICS invitation.

The intention, as Nana Leigh from AFICS explained, was to bring people together socially and at the same time familiarize them with the institutions and activities open to them in the Pays de Gex, particularly those catering to their particular needs.

At this inaugural get-together, Jean-Marie Olive (ex-UNOG) and René Contoli (ex-WMO) introduced APPAVEC, an association for the aged and their families that defends the rights of older people and works to ensure a better quality of life for them whether they're completely independent or are living in a retirement home.

Future gatherings will explore other topics. So jot it down: the last Monday of the month in Le Régent brasserie (a.k.a. Brett's) in Ferney-Voltaire. See you there!
