*AMFIE is a cooperative society open exclusively to international civil servants. It is managed by a group of active and retired international civil servants. Created in 1990 as a fully licensed financial institution, it is subject to the laws and regulations which govern the activities of Luxembourg's financial sector.

The Cooperative offers its members a broad range of financial services and products at little or no cost in the six currencies available to accounts holders (EUR, CHF, GBP, USD, CAD, AUD).
