ASSOCIATION DES ANCIENS FONCTIONNAIRES INTERNATIONAUX
ASSOCIATION OF FORMER INTERNATIONAL CIVIL SERVANTS

We are the voice of former international civil servants, we represent your rights and interests regarding UN Pensions (UNJSPF) and After-Service- Health-Insurance (ASHI).

Invest in your future
join AAFI-AFICS now

AAFI-AFICS was founded in 1955 in Geneva with the statutory aim "to study, propose and take measures to promote and protect the rights and interests of former international civil servants and their survivors".

WHAT WE DO:

The Services of AAFI-AFICS

- Keeping you up to date

Rapid and clear information on pension rights, health insurance and other matters of concern via our website afics.unog.ch and digital AAFI-AFICS Newsletters, quarterly AAFI-AFICS Bulletins and other brochures

- Advisory Services

Advice on pensions, medical insurance, choice of country of residence, by contacting AAFI-AFICS by email, telephone or personal visits to its office in the Palais des Nations, Geneva. AAFI-AFICS also participates in pre-retirement seminars organized by member organisations

- Representation

Qualified and experienced colleagues promote and protect the rights of former international civil servants and of their survivors vis-à-vis international, national and local authorities through their participation in the relevant bodies concerning UN pensions, health insurance and related matters

- Temporary Financial Assistance

Extended to members in crucial need through the AAFI-AFICS Solidarity Fund

- Social Activities

AAFI-AFICS works to encourage its members to lead healthy lives and promotes contacts among former staff members. A list of members is frequently updated and distributed. Seminars are organized on topics of interest to members. Please see the website for further details.

MORE ABOUT US

- AAFI-AFICS
  - supports the objectives and the work of the organizations of the United Nations family.
  - encourages solidarity among former international civil servants and represents their interests and rights within international bodies and qualified national or local authorities.
  - informs and advises its members with emphasis on issues relating to pensions and health and helps them to resolve problems which they or their survivors may encounter.

The Association is entirely independent, and it collaborates with staff unions/staff associations and with the Administrations of the organizations of the United Nations system.

- AAFI-AFICS Geneva is a founding member of the Federation of Associations of Former International Civil Servants (FAFICS) to which belong some sixty other associations representing former international civil servants throughout the world.

AAFI-AFICS actively participates and assists FAFICS in representing the interests and rights of retirees, foremost in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board (UNJSPB) and the 5th Committee of the UN General Assembly. FAFICS has consultative status with ECOSOC.

WHO SHOULD JOIN?

- Active and former staff members join AAFI-AFICS regardless of where they served or where they reside, primarily from organizations with headquarters or offices in Geneva, who are members of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund (UNJSPF). AAFI-AFICS Geneva today has some 3400 members residing in over 90 countries.

· The more we are, the more we shall be heard ·
